Dr. Seuss Week

Monday will be the kick-off for Dr. Seuss week. There will be a special dress day each day of the week based on a Dr. Seuss book. A flyer listing all of the special days is attached. There will also be an estimation station where elementary students may guess how many fish are in a jar. The student that guesses correctly or closest without going over will win a prize. The jars will be changed several times a week to allow for more opportunities to win a prize.

Another way for students to win some prizes is by getting caught doing a random act of kindness or a good deed. The student will be given a coupon acknowledging their good deed. The student may then submit their coupon to win a prize of their choice i.e. some great books or a Sheetz Gift card. Dana Peruso from Sheetz in Nanty Glo was kind enough to donate two $5 gift cards and one $10 gift card.

Also, some of our elementary students will be making some awesome Dr. Seuss crafts. Word searches and coloring pages will be available as well.

Spirit Wear Sale

Last week a Spirit Wear flyer was attached to the Newsletter. Orders and money are due no later than Friday, March 12th. Please make checks payable to CCCS.
